

ENGLAND

London Bridge, Parliament, Big Ben and Westminster Cathedral from the Eye.

The Eye from London Bridge.

Buckingham Palace with the changing of the guard.

Hyde Park is one of many London parks. It is near Buckingham Palace.

There are many countryside castles. Here is the Chatsworth House which is the home of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. Below: Inside the Chatsworth House.

Everywhere there are pubs. Albert, is a typical English pub. Below: Inside a pub.

Royal Guards and Bobby's are a trademark of London.

A different choice of words to say the same thing!

There are many great B&B's such as The Heaton House above.

The typical English breakfast served at all B&B's.

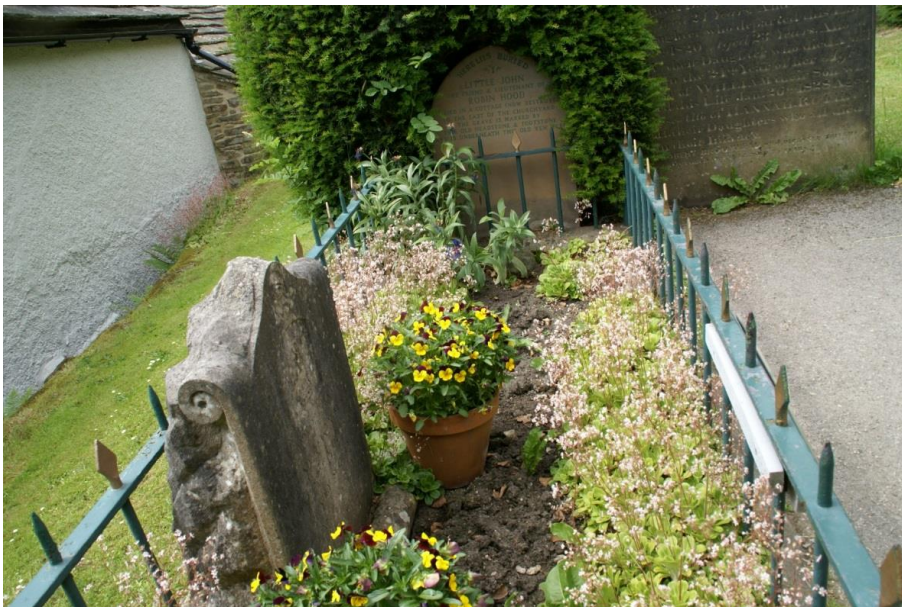

Every village has a park with abundant flowers.

Every village has churches with 1000 year old gravesites!

There are some with famous people-above is the grave of Little John from Robin Hood's gang and to the right is Winston Churchill's grave.

A typical English village countryside with rolling hills.

Above: The Paris train station for taking the “Chunnel Train” to London. Right: The London train station destination.