北京诺福特和平宾馆 NOVOTEL BEIJING PEACE

中国北京王府井金鱼胡同3号 3 Jinyu Hutong, Wangfujing beijing, P. R China

The traditional way to celebrate the New Year. This year, 2016, is the year of the Monkey.

There were decorations of monkeys! Even the trees were decorated throughout the city!

We even traveled the traditional way in a rickshaw around the section of Beijing called the "Old City".

Many trees are trained to grow in an unusual way. We called this the “Love Tree”.

Many trees are wrapped in rope to protect them from the winter. Most are painted white. The city has many huge parks full of trees.

Beijing is in every way a modern city. It has 23 million residents.

There are many markets selling traditional unusual food. Below scorpions are for sale. Some were still alive.

Above: This rickshaw had advertisement! They advertised McDonalds!!

Below: Kids are the same around the world.
