

GEDIMINAS CASTLE

Above: The hill of Gediminas Castle Below: The view from the tower

Model of the Castle area. The castle was built in the 1400's.

Below: A view of Old Town from the tower.

Above: The new section of Vilnius from the tower.

Below: The Royal Palace with the Vilnius Cathedral on the backside.

Above: Viewing the new section of the city from the tower.

Below: Looking for a new suit at the Tower shop.

Views from the tower.

The Vilnius Cathedral.

THE BALTIC WAY

August 23, 1989

On August 23, 1989 the Baltic countries joined hands to make a human chain from the Gediminas Castle in Vilnius, Lithuania to Tallinn, Estonia. A distance of 400 miles. It was a demonstration of unity against the occupation by the Soviet Union. See the PDF on the Baltic Chain and the video.