

PHNOM PENH

The Cambodian National Museum

The riverfront along the Mekong River.

The Central Market where food, flowers and just about anything else was sold.

King Sihanouk's son has taken the crown as King of Cambodia. King Sihanouk died in 2013.

Below: The King's Royal Palace has dozens of buildings like this.

Royal Palace Buildings

The Cambodian People's Party is communist and totally controls everything in Cambodia. Below the city workers are taken to a People's Party Convention.

Vendor's along the Riverwalk.

Above: Dried fish for sale.
Left: Lotus Flowers for sale
Below: Sparrows for sale

The Wat Phnom Temple from a city park. Below: Inside the Temple.

